

ASHLEY & CO

Being a modern day scent company means Ashley & Co do things a little differently. They savour scents and memories informed by the past, but their spirit is anchored firmly in the present, in the richness of our modern lives. Not beholden to a particular style or trend, they instead hope for an element of timelessness in their range so they can effortlessly be part of others' lives.

ASHLEY & CO

Ashley & Co pride themselves on long-lasting, memorable scents and on superior products. To achieve the best, they manufacture in New Zealand so they can oversee the process and maintain quality from go to whoa. Perfect is how they like it.

A lot has changed at Ashley & Co since it's founding more than a decade ago. Yet what remains true is a love of what they do: creating, sharing, giving and making a bit of magic too.
